Sorry, catching up on emails and didn't get to these until today. Can we talk about removing the 51%. It was really the only real term in what is a standard OA. I understand her concern with resolution via deadlock and she should be looking out for the company interest. But giving me 51 was something that made me feel safe and that meaningful gesture of trust made me feel comfortable leaving my practice (and identity) and joining yours. Is this an issue for you?

We can discuss more tomorrow.
